Goals/Purpose of the G-Rex Grant Tour:

- To rally, foster, and invest in the local cell & gene therapy community in North America
- To promote transparency and collaboration among like-minded individuals and organizations working towards a common goal
- To catalyze scientific and clinical progress through a shared sense of duty to the patients we all serve
- To spotlight the breadth of diverse innovative cell and gene therapy approaches

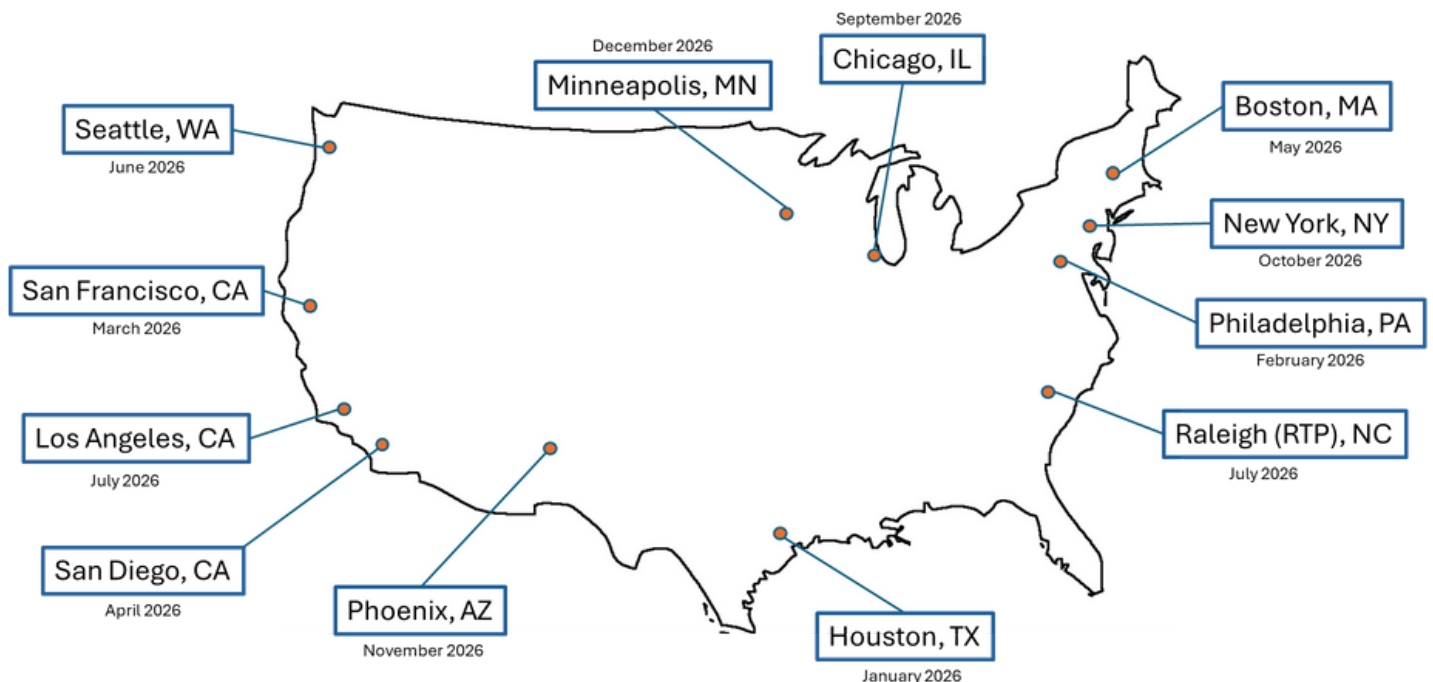

G-Rex® Grant Tour 2026

Brief Overview

What is it?

- The G-Rex Grant North American Tour is a 12-month, 12-city event series to continue and build on the positive momentum generated through ScaleReady's $40M G-Rex Grant Program.
- Every location is strategically chosen in or near a major Cell & Gene Therapy (CGT) hub; dense with world-class research, development, and manufacturing to maximize audience quality, relevancy, attendance, and participation.
- Each event will be one (full or half) day and will platform select G-Rex Grant Recipients in a single or multi-track agenda to showcase their work to their colleagues and the CGT community.
